

1. Herbert James Draper (British, 1864–1920), Evening Calm, oil on canvas, 24" x 40". 2. A patinated metal sculpture in the Renaissance taste. 3. Martin Johnson Heade (American, 1819–1904), Untitled (Cherokee Roses in Clear Water Glass), oil on board, 11.25" x 8.25". 4. A Burma ruby, diamond and eighteen karat white gold ring. 5. Chinese cast iron figure of Budai. 6. A two-tone wristwatch, Santos, Cartier. 7. An Art Deco diamond and platinum ring. 8. Chinese parcel-gilt copper alloy repousse figure of the Medicine Buddha. 9. Addison Thomas Millar (American, 1860–1913), Rue de Diable, Algiers, oil on board, 13.75" x 9.5". 10. Santa Inez paint decorated Santos figure, 18th century, retains early paint, articulated arms and hands, and glass eyes. 11. An Early Gorham Coin Silver Tea Service and a Massive Marcus & Co. sterling tea tray.

