A-Spring-A-Ding-Ding!

Old Kinderhook Auction Company begins its bloom with our first ever 2-day auction event!

Day 1 will begin with a 15th Century Umbrian School fresco from the Hearst Collection, and feature almost 300 prints and multiples from and to benefit the Albany Print Club. Additional select lots include Joan Miro and Irving Ramsey Wiles. Also in the offering will be an assortment of fine period frames to compliment any piece.

Day 2 will begin with a palace worth of fine antique rugs, followed by a palace worth of fine jewelry. In keeping with the season, we have dozens of outdoor offerings, including Fiske urns and Chinese jardiniere. An incredible assortment of porcelain and glass, as well as fine furnishings will make you mad as the March Hare.
