Just a few days away from the official start of summer, bibliophiles across New England are out and about searching for their favorite authors and subjects. For those interested in history, fiction, fine printing, art, baseball and signed books, Connecticut River Book Auction has much to offer at its June 17th event.

For history fans, there are several interesting items including a grouping of Admiral Dewey material, a 1966 full vellum copy of Smith's The Generall Historie of Virginia, a signed 1st edition of Stephens Texas Ranger Sketches, and a signed limited edition of Jenkins The Most Remarkable Texas Book: An Essay on W.W. Heartsill's Fourteen Hundred and Ninety-One Days in the Confederate Army. For enthusiasts of Eric Sloane there are signed copies of The Cracker Barrel, A Reverence for Wood, and Diary of an Early American Boy. And not to be ignored is a signed copy of Hoopes and Brinkley's Driven Patriot the Life and Times of James Forrestal.

It's summer and what better time to reread the following 1st edition classics: Orwell's Animal Farm, O'Neil's Mourning Becomes Electra (signed), Burgess' The Kingdom of the Wicked Anthem (signed), Hemingway's For Whom the Bell Tolls and A Farewell to Arms, Chandler's The Big Sleep, in facsimile dj, or Faulkner's As I Lay Dying, the 1st edition, 2nd issue in a poor $2.50 unclipped dustjacket.

For those who appreciate limited editions / small press, here are just two of the listings: Bradbury's That Son of Richard III and the signed Gift edition of Crichton's Jurassic Park.

Like baseball? If the answer is yes then consider that we have a number of books signed by players like Monte Irvin, Don Zimmer, Don Drysdale, Tommy John, and Orel Hershiser then add to that several lots of baseball mysteries and team/player histories to enjoy with a nice non-alcoholic beer (and who are we kidding).

There are several lots of art books including Gamboni's Paul Gauguin The Mysterious Centre of Thought a 1st edition in dj. Then there is a Hilary Knight inscribed 1st edition in dj copy of Eloise and a 1st edition, 2nd issue of Baum's The Marvelous Land of Oz. Oh, and we nearly forgot to mention we have a Richard Rogers inscribed copy of Musical Stages and a boldly inscribed and dated George Gershwin Song Book. Finally, we would be negligent if we did not note that this auction will offer Civil War aficionado's DeCoeniel's (aka George Henry Mile) composition "Our National Confederate Anthem God Save the South." This rare item of Civil War history was printed in Richmond, Virginia in 1861, the text by Ernest Halpin and the lith. by E. Grehen is approximately 10.5" x 13" in size.
