

Cricket Vase 18th/19th century
est 5000 to 7000

Chinese coral glazed 19th century covered jar,
Dr. Guillermo Rico collection

Paul Emile Pissaro
painting

Among the fine and unusual items are a pair of 19th century porcelain vases, Famille Verte, a 19th century Sang de Boeuf vase, a group of blue and white Chinese porcelain vases, a 19th century covered coral glazed porcelain box with a receipt from Ian McLean, Hong Kong and New York, a Lalique Champs Elysees chandelier, a painting of a house by Paul Emile Pissaro, Japanese ceramics and fine jewelry. Many of the items have original receipts.

Chinese porcelain
Guillermo collection

Important 19th century Chinese

Champs Elysses Lalique chandelier

David Killen Gallery

is excited to represent a very special auction of the Chinese Porcelain and Art Collection of Dr. Guillermo Rico, MD featuring a rare 18th/19th century Famille Rose cricket vase

May 7th at 10am

Most items will be uploaded a week before on LiveAuctioneers.com

110 West 25th Street, NYC 10001

Preview: April 29 & 30 and by appointment

DavidKillenGallery.com

212-426-0079

917-751-3323

646-590-2788