On Sept. 10th, Amero Auctions will proudly present our "Fabulous Fall Auction" in Sarasota FL. We are excited to offer a dazzling array of investment quality 17th- 21st C fine art, furnishings, and sculpture curated with a discerning eye from all over the country and abroad. The highlight of this sale is an extraordinary estate collection relocated to Sarasota from family generations in France, England, and America, as well as ambitious collecting of great design and unique curiosities from odysseys throughout Europe in the 70's and 80's. Pieces from this collection include a Bernard Buffet landscape, 17 Igor Mitoraj bronze and marble sculptures, Eugen Boudin Mother and Child, multiple Miguel Berrocal puzzle sculptures, large Louis Lutz bronze acrobats, Pierre-Yves Tremois and Michel Lablais artworks, a large collection of Daum and Lalique crystal objects. Other highlights in this sale to include artworks by Henri Martin, Gustav Cariot, Antoine Blanchard, Jean Cocteau, large JR Brown 1910 landscape of Cape Town, Jac Martin-Ferriers, Greg Hildebrandt, an important oil on canvas by Ernie Barnes, multiple bronzes including a large bronze Nubian attributed to the Graux-Marly Foundry Paris, lithographs and more. Period furnishings, rare large format first image of the Earth from the Moon, Regina Style 35 automatic disc player, rare William Demuth zinc tobacconist figure, pair of monumental 19th C. Meissen potpourri jars, Chinese and Japanese porcelain items, artist mannequins, the swords of Captain Robert Orme of Braddocks Expedition in the French and Indian Wars, carved Walnut Trunk formerly owned by a Titanic survivor, another nice selection of Tiffany and American glass, fine jewelry and watches to include Piaget, Tiffany, and Bulgari. Don't miss this stunning and intriguing sale with truly something for everyone.
