Our August 19th and 20th Estates auction features the art collection of William Frew, who piloted for the United States Air Force and later Trans World Airways. His collection of Japanese prints are from his great uncle Bernard Frew, secretary for General MacArthur. There is also a collection of Chelsea clocks and barometers from John McCarthy, the Chelsea Clock Co. foreman for 30 years. We present an extensive collection of decorative furnishings from a Southern Connecticut estate, as well as an estate in Rye, New Hampshire.

The second day of our auction features furniture and exceptional garden antiques from a Bunny Williams and John Rosselli decorated Palm Beach home. Lots 750 and above are from this Regency Palm Beach estate. These items can be previewed in Palm Beach by appointment only, call 941-928-2872 / 561-779-8511 for more information. Deliveries available from Palm Beach to Boston, along the Rte. 95 corridor for a reasonable fee.
