

Three Important Works of Art at Auction

Saturday, September 9th at 1 pm

Agopb.com

Auction Gallery Palm Beaches

561-805-7115

1696 Okeechobee Rd. 1-B

West Palm Beach, Florida 33409

Bidding on Liveauctioneers and Invaluable.

For inquires/condition reports please email at info@agopb.com

The three works are provenance Mr. Mortimore Cobb (1904-1986) The Last Living Survivor of the Titanic. Cobb was a Palm Beach resident for many years, after his retirement as a Captain in the US Maritime Service. These pieces are from the estate of his third wife, June C. Underhill-Cobb. These pieces were in their family possession and home for many years.

John Singleton Copley (1738-1815), Portrait of Sea Captain Richard Fanning,
oil on canvas on board, 24" x 20"

Winslow Homer (1836-1910), Marblehead, Mass., watercolor on paper, signed "Homer", 13 3/4" x 18 1/8"

Elias Pelletreau
(New York, 1726-1810)
Rare Gold Bead Necklace descended in the family for over 200 years.

Rembrandt Van Rijn (1606-1669), 100 Guilder Print/
Christ Healing the Sick, etching on watermarked paper, 10 7/8" x 15 3/8". Accompanied with an extensive archival and research documents from early 20th century.