

HISTORIC ILLUSTRATION ART AUCTION

Saturday, October 14th at 10AM EST - Visit Bidlive.BruneauandCo.com to view the catalog!

Howard Pyle Death of Montcalm

Dean Cornwell Explorers on a Ship

Bruneau & Co. Auctioneers is proud to present the illustration art collection of Carl J. Pugliese (May 25, 1916 – October 3, 1982). Carl was an American painter, illustrator, sculptor, and historian who from an early age had a passion for the American West and United States military history, which was cemented during his four years of service in World War II. Following his honorable discharge from the Army, he enrolled in the School of Visual Arts in New York where he studied under Harry Fisk, Ben Dale, and Burne Hogarth, honing his own skills as an artist. Carl had a passion for great illustration art and collected works by Howard Pyle, Tom Lovell, J.C. Leyendecker, Norman Price, Dean Cornwell, Herbert Morton Stoops, amongst many others. He had a keen eye and possessed a large number of wonderful pieces, which will be coming to the market for the first time in this auction.

Matt Clark Fishermen in a Canoe

JC Leyendecker Peeling Apples Study

Tom Lovell Bombay Nights

Norman Price Lewis & Clark

BruneauandCo.com
Info@BruneauandCo.com

BRUNEAU & CO.
AUCTIONEERS

401.533.9980
63 4th Ave. Cranston, RI