We have been selected by the heirs (name withheld) to liquidate the remaining contents of one of the earliest houses of North Deering, Portland, Maine. The resident collected period antiques and accessories that decorated this 1750s homestead. They were purists and loved all aspects of Americana. They lived in this home for over 50 or 60 years and collected early American furniture and accessories. Great opportunity to find seldom offered antiques. This is a strictly online auction. No physical viewing of the objects is available. Extensive photos have been taken. If you have any questions, please contact us. Over 200 diversified lots, many with multiple items. If you are looking to acquire "old things," don't miss this sale.
