

MID-AMERICANA AT AUCTION

Featuring Folk, Tramp, Outsider & Native American Art with Country Furniture and Accessories in Old Paint

Sunday, December 10th, at 12:00 pm CST

Live Auction, with Telephone, Internet and Absentee Bidding. In-house Shipping and Local Delivery Available.

A Massive Inuit Whale Bone Carving

A Collection of Prison Art

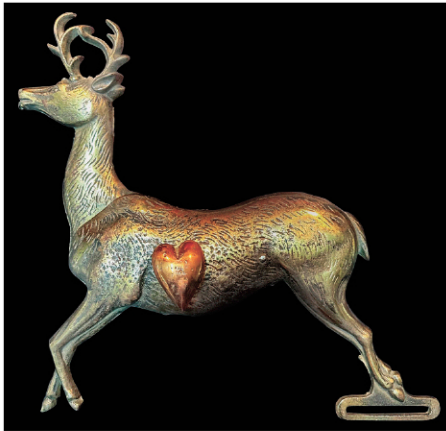

A Large and Outstanding, Near Life-sized, Lady Lion Tamer Shooting Gallery Target Circa 1890

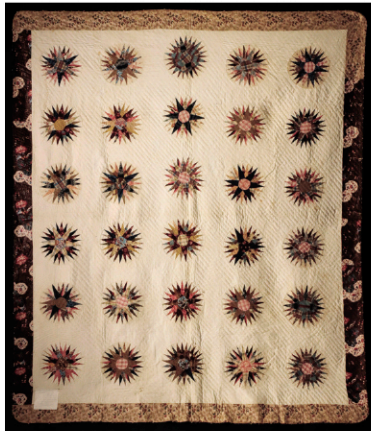

An 80-inch Wild Woman Totem Attributed John Livingston (1959-2019) KWAKWAKA'WAKW

Exceptional Shooting Gallery Targets

Shooting Gallery Target Collection Including This Rare Brass and Copper Plated Target Signed C. W. Parker, Abilene, Kansas

A Collection with Unwashed 19th Century Polished Cotton Quilts

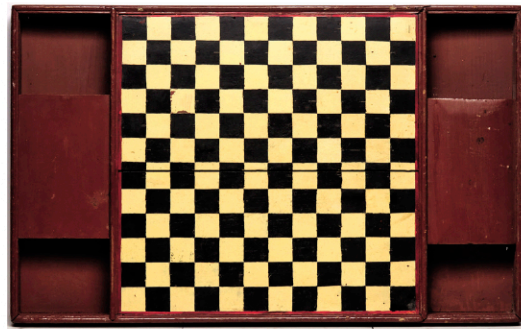

Fine Folk Art Including this Pull Toy Exhibited at The Museum of American Folk Art and Others

Carved Ship's Figurehead in Old Paint

Attributed Cushing and White

Furniture and Accessories in Old Paint

A Small But Formidable Collection of 19th Century American Weather Vanes, Including this example Attributed J.W. Fiske, NY

Tramp Art Crown of Thorns with Painting in Carved Corn Frame

Exceptional Full Bodied Cow Weather Vane with Cast Iron head

Tramp Art Including this Massive and Complex Box

Two and Three Dimensional Outsider Art

A Rare Large Fisher Boy Iron Shooting Gallery Target

One of Three Good Whirligigs

Soulis Auctions
Lone Jack, Missouri • 816.697.3830
www.SoulisAuctions.com