

PONY SIZE BRONSON SURREY

CHARLES STREET AUCTION

presents

Decoys, American and International Folk Art from the collection of W. Ted Davis, Jr.

A distinguished ornithologist, Boston University Professor, and Nuttall Club at Harvard member, Ted traveled to 76 countries and his passion for wildlife inspired him to collect American decoys and folk art animals from around the World.

This is the first offering from his collection and will also include a few items from local estates, including Horse drawn carriages from Bruce and Olga Hausser of Cape Cod.

Items include: decoys by Crowell, Swift, Conklin, Sutton and many more. Shorebird decoys: from Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard, Long Island and more. Miniatures by Crowell, Lapham, Ahearn, Dando, Morse and Strunk. Bird carvings by Peltz, Warfield, Weaver and Franco.

Fish decoys by Steffen and Christiansen. Folk art from around the World.

Stone and Sterling Silver miniature animals.

ONLINE AUCTION

Preview, absentee bid, and bid through LiveAuctioneers. Live bidding begins on

Saturday, March 9th at 10AM

To register for limited phone bidding, call 508-209-4512

Now accepting consignments for our next sale

Charles Street Auction | 2 Charles Street, Sandwich, MA 02563 | Phil Stanton MA auctioneer license #255

