

RISD MUSEUM HAT BOXES & BAND BOXES

Auction Monday, March 18 at 10am EST - Preview March 12 - 15 from 9am - 4pm

The Rhode Island School of Design Museum's deaccessioned collection includes well known makers such as Hannah Davis, boxes lined with 19th Century newspapers, and even a rare box depicting President Andrew Jackson. All feature wallpapers and designs of the Victorian era with their vibrant colors and unusual patterns!

MENDON HISTORICAL SOCIETY FIGURAL CREAMERS

Auction Monday, March 18 at 11am EST - Preview March 12 - 15 from 9am - 4pm

The Mendon Historical Society's deaccessioned collection includes an array of pottery from Royal Bayreuth, Rookwood, and others - ranging from animal creamers to Toby pitchers, showcasing the creativity and design prowess of German porcelain, which not only hold their own historic value, but maintain a lovely decorative value!

ORIGINAL MCCOY STADIUM PAWSOX MURALS

Auction Monday, March 18 at 12pm EST - Preview March 12 - 15 from 9am - 4pm

Nostalgia is calling with 42 of the original murals that hung in McCoy Stadium of Pawtucket Red Sox players! Baseball fans and art enthusiasts will enjoy these works from RISD graduate Carol "Tayo" Heuser, including famous players such as Roger Clemens, Jim Rice, Carlton Fisk, Bo Diaz, Cecil Cooper, and Oil-Can Boyd - just to name a few!

MATTHEW G. FORTE POLICE EQUIPMENT

Auction Monday, March 18 at 1pm EST - Preview March 12 - 15 from 9am - 4pm

Matthew G. Forte was a retired Training Director of the Port Authority of NY and NJ Police, staff writer for Police Collector News, wrote about police equipment for law enforcement journals and publications, as well as two books on early police equipment. This collection includes early restraints, clubs, lanterns, and other police related equipment.

REGISTER TO BID ON BIDLIVE.BRUNEAUANDCO.COM!

DOWNLOAD OUR APP!

FOLLOW US ON SOCIAL!

BruneauandCo.com
Info@BruneauandCo.com

BRUNEAU & CO.
AUCTIONEERS

401.533.9980
63 4th Ave. Cranston, RI