FINE PUBLIC FIREARMS AUCTION

Saturday, March 16 • Live and Online • Starts at 10am ET

In-person preview from 8-10am • 1702 2nd St., Montrose, GA

This 800+ lot offering is richly stocked with 'most-wanted' models by Winchester, Colt, Smith & Wesson, Beretta, LC Smith, Kimber and more, plus fine Randall Made knives. This auction will include Montrose's finest offering of contemporary and sporting arms to date. We've also expanded the sale to include a large selection of Smith & Wesson and Colt collectible arms and Randall Made knives.

Winchester 1901 10-gauge lever shotgun produced in 1916, blue-finished with varnished, straight-grained American walnut stocks, a round pistol grip, leather-covered recoil pad. Left side of barrel marked with the Winchester address and 'Model 01 10 GA FULL.' Small Winchester proof on top of both chamber and receiver. 'WRA' in script on left side of frame. Exceptionally fine with brilliant bright bore. Fully operational. Estimate: $1,800-$2,800

LC Smith VH 16-gauge side-by-side shotgun, manufactured in 1940, 28-inch barrels with single-bead front sight, London steel marked barrels with lifter extraction, and single Hunter trigger with checkered, varnished pistol-grip stock with beavertail forearm. Matching serial numbers on all components. Estimate: $2,000-$3,000

Pre-WWII Winchester 71 Deluxe lever rifle in .348 WCF caliber with 24-inch barrel and period Lyman Model 56 receiver sight. Checkered deluxe walnut stocks with factory super-grade-pattern Winchester swivels and period Boyt leather sling. Brilliant bore and sharp rifling stocks. Action operates properly and locks solidly. Excellent condition. Estimate: $2,800-$3,800

2004 Beretta 682 Gold E over/under 12-gauge shotgun with 3in chambers. Sporting clays edition with single selective trigger with ejectors and adjustable gold-embellished trigger. Comes with 6 factory extended choke tubes, spare strikers, replacement trigger. Very fine condition with brilliant bright bores. Factory hard case and tools. Estimate: $2,500-$3,500

1949 LC Smith Ideal Grade side-by-side 12-gauge shotgun with checkered pistol-grip stock with case, colored receivers, broad-leaf engraved scenes, single Hunter trigger and ejectors. Full beaver-tail forearm with high solid rib and dual-sight beads. All matching numbers, with numbers-matching shipping carton and hang tag. Estimate: $2,200-$3,200

Beretta DT10 10T Trident over/under 12-gauge shotgun manufactured in 2003, 30-inch barrels, five factory extended choke tubes, single selective/adjustable trigger with ejectors. Action operates properly. Extremely fine condition. Accompanied by tools, snap caps, instructions manuals and factory hard case. Estimate: $3,000-$5,000.

Parker Brothers 12-gauge PH side-by-side double-barreled shotgun, manufactured in 1901, 32-inch barrel. Excellent overall condition, having undergone professional restoration at some point. Serial-numbered '104765.' Estimate: $1,800-$2,800

Winchester Parker reproduction DHE 12-gauge side-by-side shotgun cased with 26-inch barrel and extra 28-inch barrel. Manufactured sometime between 1983-1989. According to 'The Parker Story' (by Gunther, Mullins, Parker, Price and Cote), it is one of only 1,500 that were built in 12 gauge. Auction estimate: $2,000-$3,000

Kimber 82 Super America .22-caliber bolt rifle, new/old stock, manufactured December 12, 1986 at Kimber's then-headquarters in Clackamas, Oregon. Blue-finished with two-panel checkered bolt handle and detachable five-round magazine. Checkered steel butt plate, ebony forend tip, and oil-finished, checkered exhibition walnut stock with factory sling swivel studs and polished, blue-finished pistol grip cap. Comes with all paperwork and original serial-numbered box. Estimate: $2,000-$3,200
