Across New England seeds have been planted and harvesting begun on spring crops like lettuce, radishes and peas. Here at Connecticut River Book Auction the same is true with a mouthwatering selection of fiction, history, art and ephemera ready for the taking.

Let's start with fiction and a first edition, first issue in dustjacket of F. Scott Fitzgerald's masterpiece "Tender is the Night." Published in 1934 in a printing of 7,600 copies it has been ranked by Modern Library as one of the best English language novels of the 20th Century.

Also for sale are these signed 1st editions in dustjacket: Pat Conroy (1995) "Beach Music," Doctorow (2000) "City of God," Gurganus (1989) "Oldest Living Confederate Widow Tells All," Irving (1994) "A Son of the Circus," Mailer (1998) "The Time of our Time," and White (1960) "The View from the Fortieth Floor," to name just a few.

Like history? Then consider a signed 1st edition copy in dustjacket of McCullough "1776," or from 1900 a copy of "The Story of the Twenty-First Regiment Connecticut Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War 1861-1865." There are two desirable 7 volume sets issued by the U.S. Government. The first is "Naval Documents

Related to the Quasi War between the United States and France," and the second is "Naval Documents Related to the United States Wars with the Barbary Pirates." There is also a unique 1915 POW 12 issue newspaper "The Wooden City A Journal for British Prisoner of War," that deserves your attention. Also don't forget to look at Long (1935) "Gray Telephone Pay Stations Yesterday Today Tomorrow," Pringle (1753) "Observations on the Diseases of the Army in Camp and Garrison in Three Parts," or Wilkes (1849) "Voyage Round the World embracing the Principal Events of the Narrative of the United States Exploring Expedition."

On the art scene there is the desirable 1927 limited edition of "Inedited Works of Bakst," and works by Bruce Webber, Eric Sloan and many more. And let's not forget signed material by Ted Williams, Jim Lomborg, Willie Stargell, a large advertisement for Professor Harraden's "System of Hypnotism," and an exceedingly scarce complete 1989 Sears & Roebuck Bicycle Catalog.
