

The Lost Bird Project

Works by Todd McGrain

NOW THROUGH OCT. 6 (outdoor sculpture exhibit)

AUG. 10 THROUGH OCT. 6 (indoor exhibition)

“The Lost Bird Project” recognizes the tragedy of environmental destruction by immortalizing North American birds driven to extinction. The exhibition includes outdoor sculptures and an indoor gallery show. The works “compel us to recognize the finality of our loss,” McGrain says. “They ask us not to forget them, and they remind us of our duty to prevent further extinction.”
