It seems like only yesterday that summer's heat and humidity was slow cooking New England. Come to think of it, it was only yesterday. That aside, our first auction this fall offers a bountiful harvest of books and ephemera for your perusal.

Like fiction? Then consider these signed novels: "The Kremlin" and "Red October" by Tom Clancy, "Boon Island" by Roberts, "The Rock Road to Dublin" by Stephens and these 1st edition unsigned volumes: "Sons and Lovers" and "Tortoises" by Lawrence, "1984" by Orwell, "God's Man A Novel on Woodcuts" by Ward or "Kwaidan" by Lafcadio Hearn in its scarce dustjacket to name just a few.

Interested in history? Then examine: "History of the War in the Peninsula and in the South of France from the Year 1807 to the Year 1814" by Napier, "Sailing Ships of New England" by Robinson & Dow (a limited signed ed.), "History of the Expedition to Russia undertaken by the Emperor Napoleon in the Year 1812" by De Segur or "Other Days in Greenwich" by Hubbard (a limited signed ed.) and "Ye Historie of Ye Town of Greenwich" by Mead.

Then again, aviation may be your interest. This auction begins the sale of an incredible aviation collection. Here are a few of the volumes: "Igor Sikorsky His Three Careers in Aviation," by DeLear and signed by Sikorsky, "Leaves from an Old Log Book," by Wilson (a limited signed ed.), Flying Gypsies The Chronicle of a 10,000 Mile Air Vagabondage" by De Sibour and "Wings Around the World" by Warthausen.

What about Art? Here's a small sampling: "Where Land Meets Sea The Tide Line of Cape Cod," a signed copy by Leighton, "Victorian Radicals from the Pre-Raphaelites to the Arts & Crafts Movement" by Ellis et al., "Chinese Junks A Book of Drawings in Black & White" by Donnelly, and "Mapplethorpe" by Danto with several volumes by Bruce Weber.

To all of this add a signed 1st edition copy (no dj) of Tennessee Williams "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, a lovely full leather 10 volume set of "The Novels of Charlotte, Emily and Anne Bronte," several 1930s issues of STAGE the Magazine of After Dark Entertainment, and William Astor's (1888) "Report to the Executive Committee of the Tuxedo Club," with a signed Astor letter and you have the makings of a fine evening. And that's not even mentioning the WWI ephemera, the signed Rockwell Kent volumes, signed Dick Francis, and signed Johnny Cash volumes for sale.
