Millea Bros. SELECT auction has dropped. Join us on Dec 4, 5, & 6 for a three-day auction event featuring an exceptional array of art, design, and antiques. Day 1 showcases modern and contemporary works, including pieces by Robert Natkin, Patrick Heron, and Leonardo Nierman, as well as a group by Lee Gatch benefiting the Newark Museum of Art. Highlights include artists like Daisy Youngblood, Joseph Beuys, and fine modern furniture by designers such as Christopher Guy and Eric Schmitt Studio. Day 2 presents Asian art, American and British art and antiques, and silver, featuring deaccessioned pieces from the Minneapolis Institute of Art, such as a rare Boston silver cup by Edward Winslow (c. 1680) and sterling tableware by Paul Storr. Also included are Japanese and Korean art, lithographs by Wanda Gág, and paintings by Raphael, Isaac, and Moses Soyer. Day 3 offers Continental art and antiques, carpets, antiquities, and tribal art, featuring items from the Laura Pels Collection and the Karl Stirner collection. Highlights include works attributed to Fernand Léger, Old Master drawings, a Sèvres Louis Philippe Service de Table du Roi, a pair of Régence giltwood consoles from the Wrightsman Collections, and an extensive offering of Astier de Villatte ceramics.
