Pop Culture Icons & Rare Masterpieces: KAWS, R. Crumb, and More – A Collector's Dream Unveiled!

Magnificent and marvelous, truly something to behold. Brooklyn Based pop culture artist Brian Donnelly aka KAWS — who is everywhere from General Mills cereals to NBA Brooklyn Nets and beyond — with rare and scarce Companion masterpieces, low numbered and produced sculptures with his wonderful collaborations with fellow art gods Sorayama and Pushead, with five phenomenal pieces. Pushead "The Wave" stayed numbered a low out of 200.

As if that wasn't enough wonderful, from a pristine prized collection in Philadelphia, super scarce and rare Robert Crumb artwork, sketchbooks, newspapers and comics from the creator of Fritz The Cat and more. Extraordinary items like rare plates and sketchbooks, Zap, Uneda, Mr.Natural, American Splendor, and more spanning a majority of his entire life's works. Plus fabulous Eric Drudwyn artwork on canvas, sketchbooks, Von Bode items and art, Frazetta, Byrne, Jeffrey Jones and a treasure trove of outstanding pieces one after the other.
