

BRUNK AUCTIONS

Winter 2025 Auction Highlights

Collection of Carole Wahler | January 29, 2025

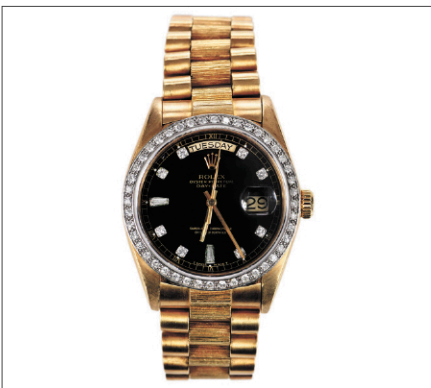

As a singular figure in the world of American pottery and early textiles, Dr. Wahler was a celebrated curator, collector, and scholar. The single owner auction includes early Southern furniture and featuring four MESDA documented items: a very rare Virginia William and Mary paneled lift top chest, a Virginia Walnut paneled corner cupboard, a Tennessee inlaid cherry chest of drawers, and a Tennessee Federal cherry high chest; many early Southern painted furniture examples including a fine Southern pale green painted pie safe with punched tin panels with heart and star design; a wonderful group of ten Ulysses Davis folk art carvings from Savannah, Georgia; a large group of textiles including a rare Asheville sampler dated 1824, together with a Georgia theorum painted by another family member, Southern applique quilts dated 1861, and an 1894 example from Hawkins County, Tennessee; Southern salt glazed and redware pottery examples from Tennessee, Alabama, and North Carolina makers.

Mountains, Plains, and Pueblos | February 18, 2025

Mountains, Plains, and Pueblos features fine and decorative arts from all corners of our Nation. Highlights from this vast range of styles, time periods, and makers include Indian by Firelight by E.I. Couse; a Lakota Ledger Drawing; Vantage Point, one of many western bronzes by Kenneth Rodney Bunn; a Monumental Zia Dough Bowl, all shown here. Also featured are a large collection of rustic Adirondack and Lodge style furniture and decorative arts; Plains beadwork, parfleches, Navajo textiles, Pueblo pottery; southwestern, California, and Cherokee double weave baskets, and much, much more.

Jewelry & Coin Auction | February 12, 2025

We start the year off right with an array of fine jewelry and timepieces from well known makers Tiffany, Breitling, Rolex, and Jacob & Company. Coupled with a solid offering of numismatic coins, including examples from Southern mints Charlotte, Dahlonega, and the Bechtler family.

The Tatti Family Collection | February 19, 2025

The Tatti Family has been at the center of the art world for much of the 20th century, casting, conserving, creating, and collecting. The Collection includes paintings, drawings, sculptures, and casts by many important artists including H. Bertioia, Hayley Lever, J. Stella, F. MacMonnies, and many more.